

Letter of Credit Requirements

International system orders should be put on a Letter of Credit unless other payment terms have been agreed upon by CyberOptics. Letter of Credits are not required if full payment is made in advance. CyberOptics' Accounts Receivable must approve any other payment terms.

CyberOptics strongly recommends that Letter Of Credit applications be submitted to CyberOptics for review before being drawn at customer's bank. All amendment fees outside the United States are for the account of the applicant (customer). A customer may be asked to revise the Letter of Credit if it is not in accordance with the requirements outlined in this document.

4.1 Please open the Letter of Credit by Swift.

4.2 The credit shall be drawn in "Irrevocable" form.
